

WANTED: Your trust

Some of you receiving this newsletter are relatively new to our communications, and you will not be aware of the unusual layout/ look of this letter. Thus you won't know that this is a very different look. And the reason we are doing this is to highlight our needs and to help everyone find somewhere they can assist us. We realize we are ever desperate for the help of our friends and co-believers in reaching the Jewish communities around the region. When we spoke in your church or you found our website or however you came onto our database, we invited you to trust us. We still do! When we ask for donations, we are asking you to trust us with your finances. When we ask you to send us the name and details of a Jewish mate or work colleague, we are inviting your trust. We may be able to help in evangelism with your friend and if you trust us, we will co-operate in this witness. Thanks for considering that.

GOD WANTS YOU TO LOVE HIM and to know him, with gladness and wholeness of heart. We would be remiss if we failed to remind you of his great love and desire for a relationship with you. If you haven't ever given your life to the Lord of life, please, stop what you are doing and look up, and live.

WANTED: Your donations

I guess it would go without saying that a Christian ministry like ours needs funding. We have no denomination that employs us. We are a faith ministry that lives month-to-month on the generosity of our donors. Every little bit and every large bit certainly help us. Even overage from our sales in the shop and online goes into the kitty to support the staff and the operations of our team. A baker sells his products to his customers and lives on the profits. A clothier sells her skirts and handbags to her customers and thereby lives. But our customers are the Jewish people and unlike the normal retailers, we offer the Gospel without charge! We ask believers to support us so that we can continue to give away our ministry to Jewish folks who need to hear. Some use our credit card facility while most use internet banking into any of our three banks (Singapore: OCBC, New Zealand: BNZ, Australia: NAB). The information is in our letter-head/masthead below. Thanks for each donation. We never take your giving for granted.

WANTED Walkers

On SATURDAY, 23 January 2021, we will be Walking for Those Who Cannot. This will be a fundraiser along with other ministries starting and ending in Watsons Bay (South Head, Sydney) for Jewish Aged Care, specifically for those on walkers and disabled. Eventbrite is where and how you would book for you or your family. There is also a t-shirt option if you want to purchase one of those. Sponsored by JOOS (Jewish Outreach of Sydney). We will end with a bring-and-share picnic, God willing, and COVID-safe, we hope. This will be a fun time in fellowship and a great way to Love and Serve those who cannot walk for themselves.

WANTED Your prayers

Three times a month we send out UPDATES via email from our offices here in Sydney and we share teachings, stories from the fields around the globe, offer a chance for you to donate, and try to keep our constituency informed so that each will pray. Without prayer, our ministry will simply be another social agency, and although there is plenty of need for such in the world today, we are called to something more. Your prayers make us into an agency of reconciliation from heaven for Jewish people and anyone else who is listening. Thanks for being part of our team!

TRAINED PARTNERS

Committed Trained Partners

Jews for Jesus has had a program for years called "Co-Labourers in Messiah (CLIM)." These are volunteers who give us 10 hours a month in intentional volunteering in their area, and who represent us in their spheres of influence. This year, 2020, we had a great time in learning and planning which caused us to work hard at the Mind, Body, Spirit festival proclaiming Yeshua among the New Age community. We plan to conduct the next training in January 2021, COVID and Lord willing. We are hoping to find representatives in each state. Activities can include prayer meetings, ringing and following up with Jewish people, conducting Shabbat fellowship outreaches, public relations with Christians and Christian bookshops, etc. There really is no end to the possibilities of such representation. Interested? Ring or email the office for an application.

HELP WANTED VOLUNTEERS

If you've ever worked in a book shop, you know that some hours are relatively quiet and others are chockablock with activity. So it is with us, as we open during the weekday and you never know which will occur. Yet, since we usually leave the front door swung open, the dust and the noise of Bondi come in with ease. We are always needing our materials dusted and our shop cleaned, even without COVID. But certainly as the pandemic is still with us in measure, we need help to keep the place tip-top and clean. We often have projects that require more hands-on as well, so we welcome assistance from our friends.

Staff

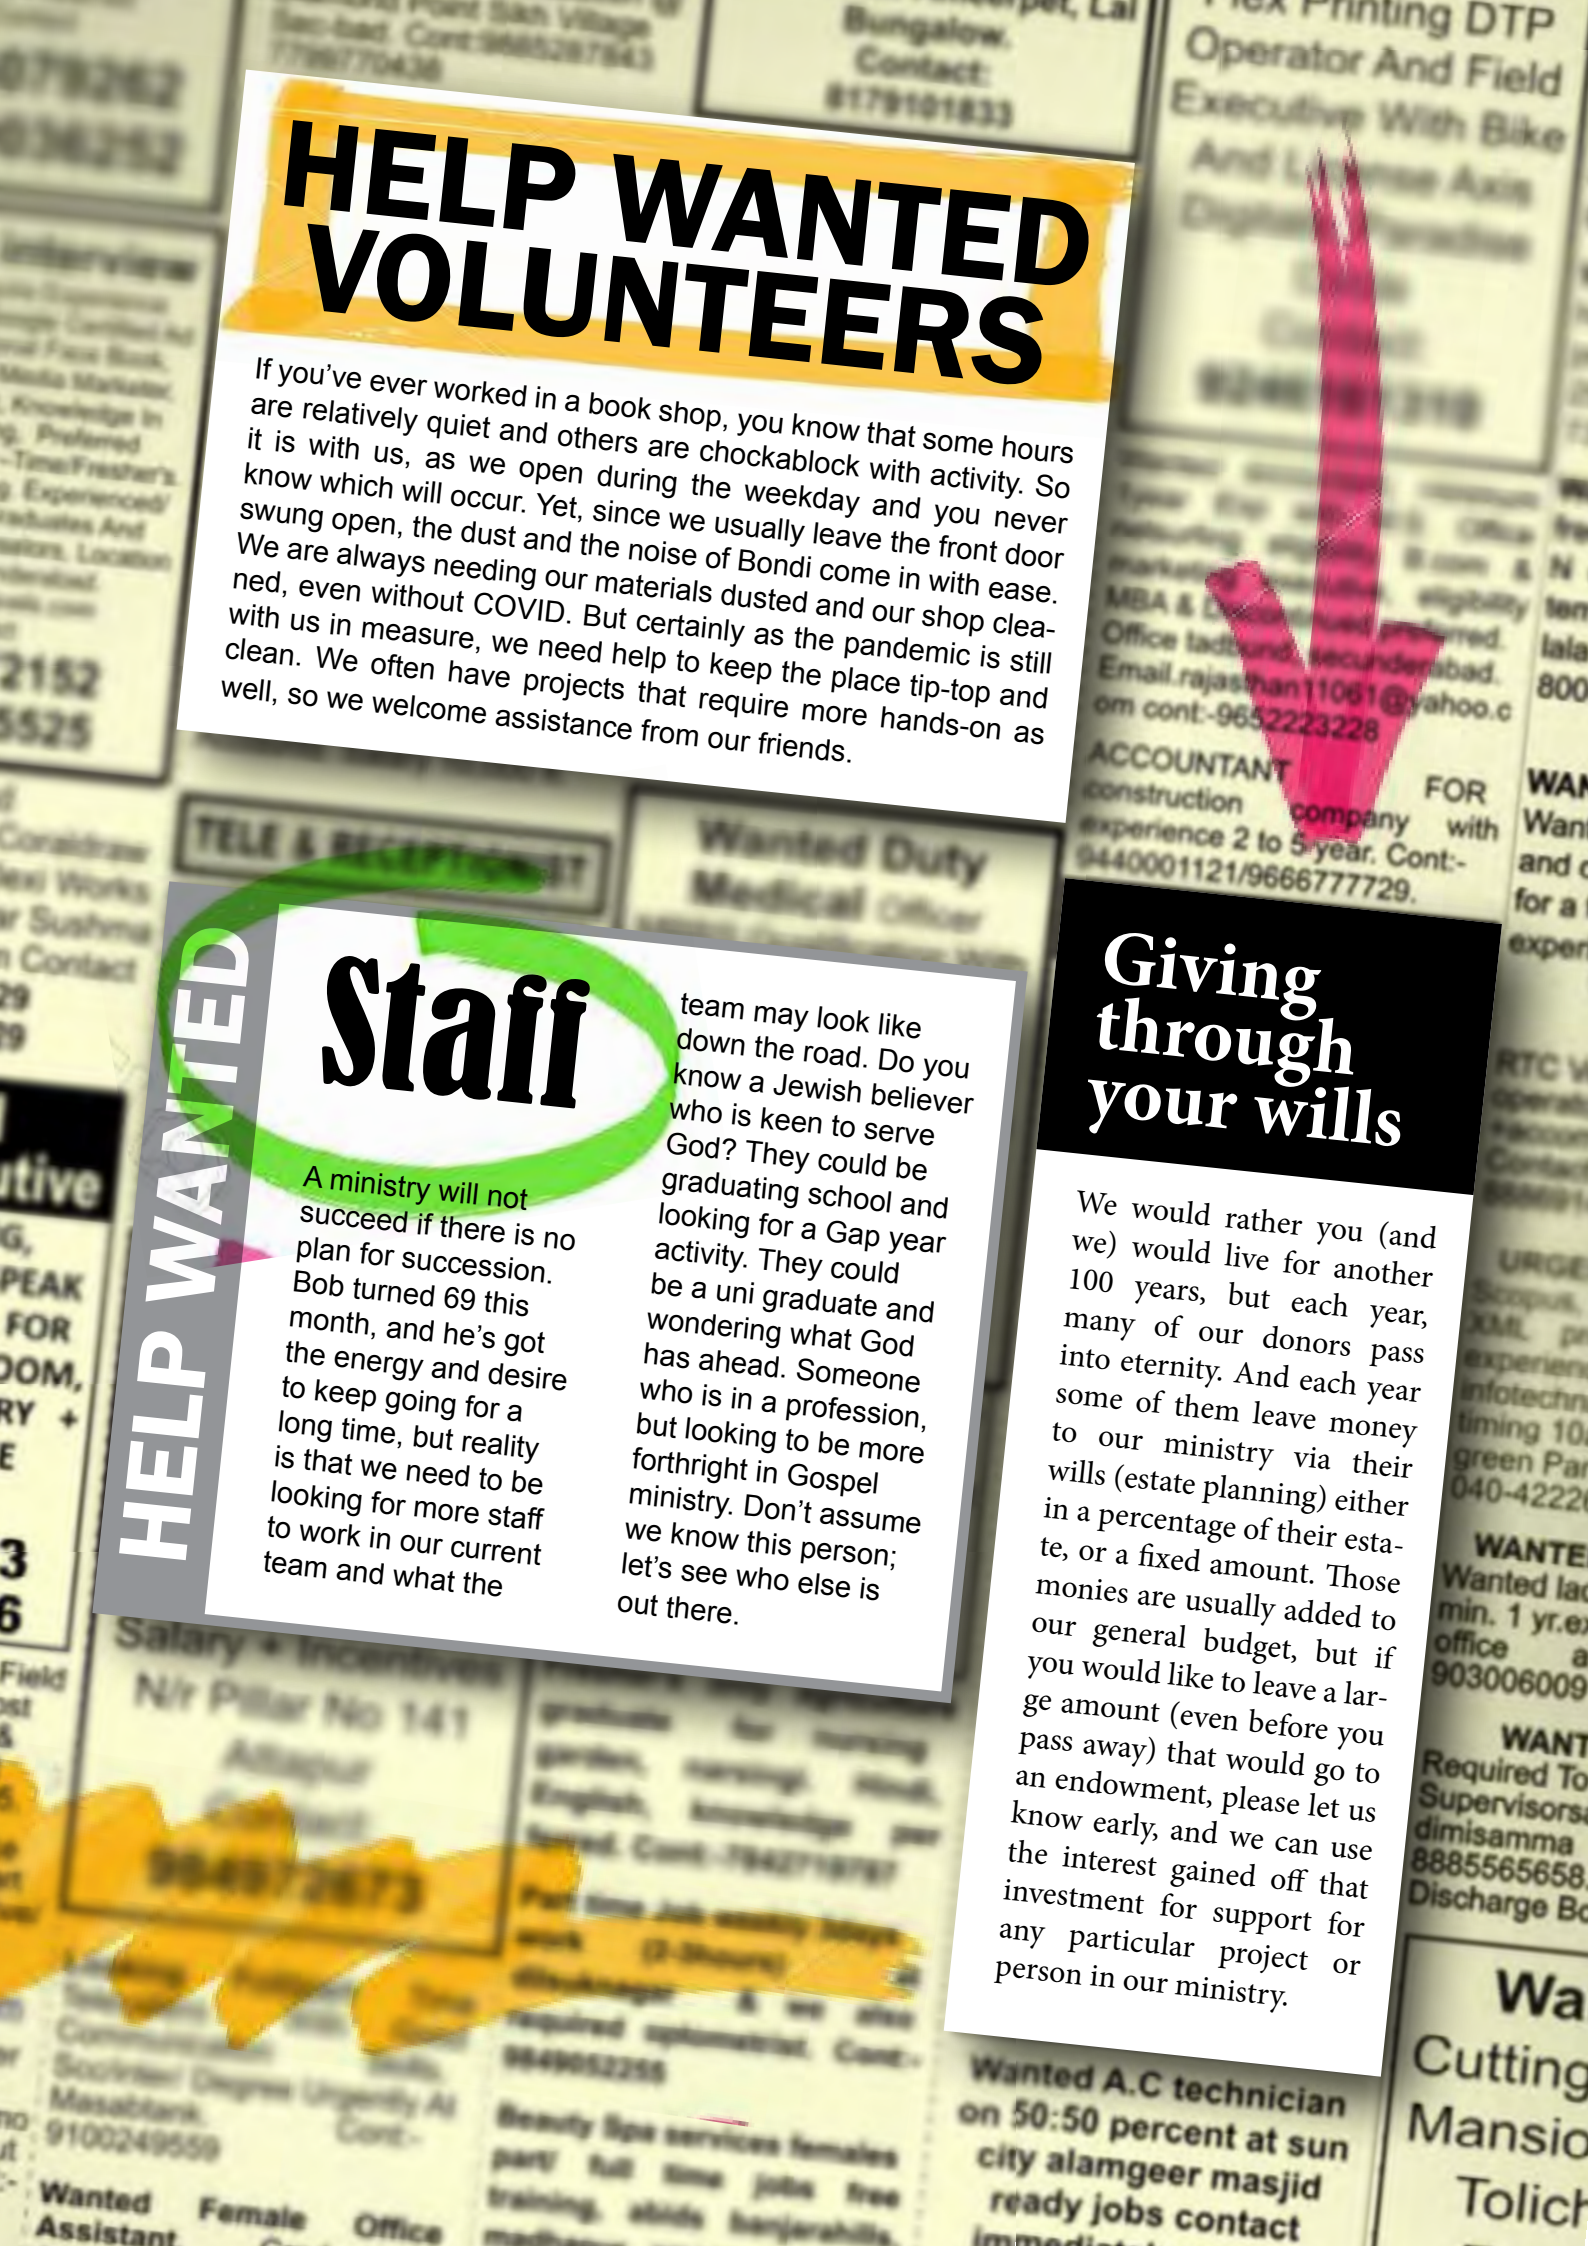

A ministry will not succeed if there is no plan for succession. Bob turned 69 this month, and he's got the energy and desire to keep going for a long time, but reality is that we need to be looking for more staff to work in our current team and what the team may look like down the road. Do you know a Jewish believer who is keen to serve God? They could be graduating school and looking for a Gap year activity. They could be a uni graduate and wondering what God has ahead. Someone who is in a profession, but looking to be more forthright in Gospel ministry. Don't assume we know this person; let's see who else is out there.

Giving through your wills

We would rather you (and we) would live for another 100 years, but each year, many of our donors pass into eternity. And each year some of them leave money to our ministry via their wills (estate planning) either in a percentage of their estate, or a fixed amount. Those monies are usually added to our general budget, but if you would like to leave a large amount (even before you pass away) that would go to an endowment, please let us know early, and we can use the interest gained off that investment for support for any particular project or person in our ministry.
